SUMMER STAFF (Cabin Counselor) JOB DESCRIPTION

DEADLINE TO RETURN APPLICATION: June 1, 2018

JOB TITLE: Male Cabin Counselor (Sorry female positions are all filled)

PURPOSE OF JOB:

Cabin Counselors are responsible for leading the campers in their cabin at all times. When paired with a Junior Counselor, the Senior Counselor leads the Junior Counselor as they work together to lead their campers. When paired with another Senior Counselor, the two senior counselors work in a 'co-counselor' relationship and share the senior counselor responsibilities. Must be 16 years of age or older. Preference given to 17 years old or older because of running the zip line. Your job is to make sure each camper in your cabin has the best time they can while they are at camp, and to make sure each camper gets the most out of their time at camp.

Cabin Counselors are a very important part of the Grove Christian Camp Ministry and can have a significant spiritual impact on the lives of their campers.

QUALIFICATIONS:

A baptized believer and member of a Bible believing church. Ability to work with campers of all ages and set a good example. Self motivated individual. Ability to perform physical tasks as required. At least 16 years old.

REPORTS TO:

Camp Manager and Camp Director

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Responsible for the well being of each camper in your cabin.
2. Assist camp manager and director with registration time.
3. Be ready to facilitate recreation, which may include: archery, water activities, low ropes and zip line (some certification is required and will be provided.)
4. Help to ensure facilities and buildings are clean between camps.
5. On rotation, help with kitchen and maintenance during guest groups.
6. All other duties as directed by the Camp Manager.

Compensation:

$250 per week (Sunday Evening through Friday Morning Camp)

Weekend Pay is considered ½ a week.

Room and Board is part of the compensation when you are working.

Job is for 6 summer weeks, 1 summer weekend and possibly more...
